PATTAYA PERSONALITY

Opal Sangnark

Meet Opal Sangnark, a woman well known to expats involved in Pattaya's ever active social life. As a business owner, resort manager, model and mother of twins, Miss Sangnark is definitely a busy woman. Yet anyone who knows Opal knows she's always affable and willing to take time off for a friendly chat or visit.

As a young tour guide working in Ayutthaya, a chance encounter with a woman from New Zealand first led to a journey down under and eventually resulted in travels across Europe. These trips formed many lasting friendships and taught Opal a great deal about the cultural differences between East and West. It was also during this time that Opal began making her own clothing and discovering her passion.

Local expats first became familiar with Opal when she began doing fashion shows in Pattaya with Eva Johnson to promote Opal Fashion; her personal line of bespoke evening gowns and sexy dresses for ladies looking to make a splash. Many readers may also recognize Opal's face from numerous local events where she has worked as a hostess or model. Miss Sangnark has also been a familiar face at various World Superbike Racing events across Thailand, where she has worked as a model, team supervisor and even raced a few times for just for fun. Also, as the manager at Ban Mai Resort here in Pattaya, a few of you may have had the luxury of enjoying a traditional Thai dinner under the stars prepared by Miss Sangnark who also dabbles in the kitchen.

These days Opal devotes most of her time to managing Ban Mai and running her business but she still moonlights at local events and continues to work as a model as well. You will most certainly see Opal somewhere in 2019 as she continues to be an active creator and contributor to Pattaya's social fabric.

Hi Readers,

February's a romantic month with Valentine's day just around the corner and the lovely Opal this month's Pattaya Personality gracing our cover. For those of you who feel there's so much love in the air it might just be time to start planning a wedding then have a look at our Wedding Trends for 2019 on page 15.

It's also the month of the Academy Awards and on page 7 we give you some of our predictions in the major Oscar categories.

Closer to home Burapa Bike week is a real Pattaya institution but for those of you who prefer 4 wheels to 2 then Classic Cars is only a few weeks away. Certainly an event not to be missed is the LPGA Honda Classic returning to Siam Country Club this month with the world's best Women golfers in attendance.

Then for those of you who just can't get to grips with all the jargon being bandied about while you try to get to grips with the ongoing mess that is Brexit - we've a glossary that might just help on page 42.

There really is something for everyone in this month's magazine
Enjoy!

Thai Garden Resort, North Pattaya Road, 179/168 Moo 5

THE THAI GARDEN RESORT DID IT AGAIN ! RECEIVING FOR THE NINTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR, THE HOLIDAY CHECK AWARD OF EXCELLENT.

TFI The Thai Garden Resort team proudly displays their latest award, which was issued by HolidayCheck Germany.

HolidayCheck is among the largest on-line hotels portal in Germany in regards to hotel bookings and especially certified hotel reviews from actual guests.

Based on the performance of the Thai Garden Resort over the past nine years this very special 'NINE YEARS OF CONSECUTIVE EXCELLENCE' was bestowed, which ranks the resort among the most popular hotels in the world in its category.

In the whole of Thailand, only 5 hotels received this award, while in Pattaya only the Thai Garden Resort was awarded.

Mr. Rene Pisters, the General Manager of the Resort for the past 18 years, uses this opportunity to thank all his team members, as it is only because of their service and dedication that the resort received this award.

It is a fantastic team effort, which can only be achieved when the entire team, is dedicated at all times to provide excellent service towards their guests.

Secondly, the General Manager would like to give full credits towards the guests who have stayed at the Thai Garden Resort over the years and who have published their reviews of the property, as it is because of their reviews that the resort is so highly ranked and has achieved this award.

For more information, please contact us at guestservice@thaigarden.com or visit our website at www.thaigarden.com

The Thai Garden Resort promotes Pattaya at the Vakantie Beurs in Utrecht, the Netherlands

The 49th Vakantie Beurs took place in the Jaarbeurs in Utrecht, the Netherlands from the 9 to 13 January 2019.

This event is aimed at individual travelers and takes place as a five days event which was attended this year by 103.126 visitors.

Countries from all over the world set up their stands to convince potential customers to visit their destination.

In cooperation with the Tourist Authority of Thailand, the Thai Garden Resort was represented by Mr. Rene Pisters, the resort's General Manager.

There was a great response for Thailand and Pattaya was definitely in high demand.

The Thai Garden Resort looks forward to receive many new customers from the Netherlands.

AT THE THAI GARDEN ALL OUR MATTRESSES ARE DEEP CLEANED BY THE CERTIFIED TEXTILE HYGIENE COMPANY THMS.

THMS has performed this procedure for 10 years now on a twice yearly schedule, to ensure that every guest will sleep safely on clean and disinfected mattresses and pillows. Super strong vacuum cleaners are applied to deep vacuum the mattress ensuring all dust and residue is removed. The mattress is then turned-over and the same procedure is applied again. Then the THMS team sprays the mattress with a non-toxic textile hygiene spray filled with eco-friendly disinfection liquid. The same process is then done for all the pillows.

Each time a guest checks-out, the mattresses and pillows are cleaned again with the disinfection liquid. The Thai Garden Resort Housekeeping department implement this procedure to ensure the THMS criteria are fulfilled. The designated THMS Inspector then checks this by taking samples of the mattress every 6 months.

SOME OSCARS PREDICTIONS FOR 2019

It's amazing how many great films seem to emerge just before the Academy Awards. Although 2018 seemed to mainly consist of Action /Marvel/3D crowd pleasers there have been some notable gems all looking to scoop some Oscars in this month's Award Ceremony. A Star is Born, BlackKkKlansman, Bohemian Rhapsody, Can you ever Forgive Me? Crazy Rich Asians, The Favourite, Green Book, If Beale Street Could Talk, Roma, Vice, The Wife should all feature strongly and here we make some guesses of who we think will do well in the most popular categories:

Best Actress

- ★ Emily Blunt, Mary Poppins Returns
- ★ Olivia Colman, The Favourite
- ★ Melissa McCarthy, Can You Ever Forgive Me?
- ★ Glenn Close, The Wife
- ★ Lady Gaga, A Star Is Born

This seems to be a 3 horse race between Glenn Close, Olivia Colman and Lady Gaga. We're guessing that Glenn Close will get the Oscar for Best Actress.

Best Supporting Actress may well go to Regina King for "If Beale Street Could Talk" seeing off stiff competition from the 2 supporting actresses in The Favourite, Amy Adams for Vice and Claire Foy for First Man.

Best Actor

- ★ Christian Bale, Vice
- ★ Ethan Hawke, First Reformed
- ★ Viggo Mortensen, Green Book
- ★ Bradley Cooper, A Star Is Born
- ★ Rami Malek, Bohemian Rhapsody

We're strongly favouring Rami Malek for this award due to his amazing portrayal of Freddie Mercury of Queen.

Best Supporting Actor a hard one to call as it could go to Christian Bale for Vice, Mahershala Ali for Green Book, Sam Elliott for A Star is Born or Richard E Grant for Can You Ever Forgive Me? If they feel like honoring a Brit.

Best Picture

- ★ BlackKkKlansman, Black Panther
- ★ Bohemian Rhapsody, Can You Ever Forgive Me?
- ★ The Favourite, Green Book, If Beale Street Could Talk
- ★ Roma, A Star Is Born, Vice

We're going Bohemian Rhapsody for this as traditionally the Best Picture award usually goes with the Best Male Actor.

Best Director

- ★ Ryan Coogler, Black Panther
- ★ Alfonso Cuarón, Roma
- ★ Adam McKay, Vice
- ★ Bradley Cooper, A Star Is Born
- ★ Spike Lee, BlackKkKlansman

By rights this should go to Spike Lee who is long overdue for a competitive Oscar since his first nomination for the screenplay of Do the Right Thing back in 1990 - but Alfonso Cuarón may well take it from him.

COMING TO THE SMALL SCREEN

The ABC Murders

A retired Hercule Poirot receives a letter signed "ABC" from a mysterious killer. It describes a crime that is about to take place. As more letters then murders follow the killer continues to ridicule the world's greatest detective. The only clue is a copy of the ABC railway guide found at each murder scene. John Malkovich takes on the role of Agatha Christie's Poirot in this BBC adaptation.

The Umbrella Academy, Season one.

A dysfunctional family of adopted superheros are brought back together to solve the mystery of their father's death. With the help of police inspector Lupo they seek out the villain known only as The Conductor. Ellen Page, Mary J Blige, Tom Hopper, Robert Sheehan and Kate Walsh star in this adaptation from the first volume of the Dark Horse Comic's Apocalypse Suite.

Miracle workers, season one.

Craig is a low level angel given the responsibility of looking after all of humanity's prayers. God has handed over this duty so He can pursue his favourite pastimes instead. However to stop Earth's destruction Craig must perform his most difficult miracle of all. Based on the novel "What in God's Name" by Simon Rich. Starring Daniel Radcliffe, Steve Buscemi and Geraldine Viswanathan. Seven episodes.

Recommended Series :Boardwalk Empire.

Having spotted Steve Buscemi back on the TV now playing God reminded me of a classic TV series where he also ruled. This show back in the day was the jewel in the crown for the new Sky Atlantic channel. The pilot episode was directed by Martin Scorsese and produced for a whopping 18 million dollars. The five seasons ran from September 2010 until October 2014. Set in Atlantic City during the Prohibition era and centring around the character of Enoch "Nucky" Thompson. The show was based on the historical Enoch L. Johnson, a politician who gained control of Atlantic City during the 1920 s and 30s. As we progress through the five seasons you encounter many historical characters from politicians, government agents and of course mobsters. So Nucky has to fend off both the government and organized crime to hold onto his Liquor trade. The series received great critical acclaim and numerous award nominations, winning a total of 20. Look out for the outstanding supporting cast notably Michael Pitt, Kelly Macdonald, Michael Shannon, Stephen Graham, Bobby Cannavale and Michael Kenneth Williams.

GAME RELEASES

Crackdown 3.

The city of New Providence is being controlled by the mysterious Terra Nova organization and you have to take back control by destroying their facilities and defeating the various bosses and kingpins for each area. Your team of super powered agents use guns, grenades and special powers as well as vehicles. It's been 9 years since the last Crackdown game, this time out the game will be using Microsoft's Azure technology so your Xbox and Pc will utilize cloud based processing for the destruction physics in the game. This will be very useful in the multiplayer matches where you can use the extra power in addition to your Xbox or PC.

Dead or alive 6.

Dead or alive is an arcade fighting game series much like Tekken or Street Fighter for single and multiplayers. This edition utilizes a new graphics engine which shows you the damage caused to the characters during each encounter. The sweat effects from DOA5 are back while the breast bouncing has been toned down. The developers have chosen instead to focus more on the e-sport nature of the game. Fatal rush has been added for beginners to the series, where a combo can be executed by repeatedly pressing just one button. So you can get into the game without having to memorize lots of combinations.

Metro exodus.

After a nuclear war, Russian survivors now live in the underground metro system, in this first person shooting game. The story continues on from the last game and as Artyom you continue your journey out of Moscow. When you enter the wastelands you will fight the various mutated monsters that roam around as you travel to the Volga river and Ural mountains. You even get to travel on a train. Featuring dynamic weather along with a day and night cycle, the seasons even change as you progress over the course of an in game year.

Wedding Trends for 2019

As Valentine's day takes place in February then thoughts of love may turn to marriage especially as we were all glued to two royal weddings last month firstly with that of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle in May and then Princess eugenie and Jack Brooksbank later in October.

With so much hype surrounding the ceremony, there's never been a better selection of options and and ideas for planning your own special day. Looking at 2019, here are just some of the trends being promoted to make your big day that extra bit special Pantone announced it's colour of 2019 as a bright, sunny, pinky-orange named 'Living Coral'. However if you find this cheery tone rather too bright for a dress then you can always soften it by going for a peach and using the coral as a highlight accent with coral coloured flowers, bridesmaids dresses, cakes, makeup and colour schemes.

According to Lyndsey Hamilton of LH Events you can expect to see plenty on non traditional floral components in 2019 with Pampas grass a firm favourite for outside displays and more non traditional bouquets.

Couples will be finding increasingly inventive and creative ways to personalize their weddings and of course here in Thailand beach weddings are a perennial favourite.

DR PANYARIT KITIWANPHASAN ORTHOPEDIST AT PATTAYA INTERNATIONAL HOSPITAL

When you meet Dr Panyarit his enthusiasm is quite infectious especially when talking about PRP, a treatment available from him at Pattaya International Hospital.

In simple terms PRP application is a procedure whereby blood is taken from the patient. Then a centrifuge machine is used to separate the red and white blood cells extracting the Platelet Rich Plasma. This is then injected back into the patient's body where it is most needed.

Injecting directly to the site of an injury in this way can stimulate repair and greatly enhance the healing process. Also PRP has an added benefit, as being taken from the patient's own body means that there is no allergic reaction or rejection

Dr Panyarit tells me that this therapy is extremely effective in the treatment of Osteoarthritis, Tendinitis, Tennis Elbow, Lower back pain Joint Repair, Ligament sprain and chronic muscle sprain. It is relatively painless and there is literally no down time as patients literally walk out after the procedure and generally notice decreased pain and improved range of motion within three weeks.

We also discuss something that most of us will experience as we get older, that of problems with our knees. This can often be caused by the cartilage that cushions the knee joints wearing away. Previously the only treatment offered for this was a series of cortisone injections but cortisone doesn't treat the problem it only treats the inflammation. PRP however can actually start the regeneration process, actually improving and growing cartilage.

Pattaya International uses the very best machines from Taiwan, leaders in this relatively new field of regenerative medicine. The hospital itself is very forward thinking and offers many new treatments especially important for the complaints of the aging population.

I was also interested to find out when Dr Panyarit first decided to become a doctor? He told me that as a child he wanted to learn how to do everything and was interested to know how to heal and how to treat people. After attending Chiang Mai University he trained in the Orthopedic department of the Siriraj hospital in Bangkok and has now been at Pattaya International Hospital for 10 years.

He certainly is one of the Hospital's Superstars with a real enthusiasm and love of what he does and he is very keen to share information. So much so that as we were travelling from the ward down to the ground floor reception in the lift, he showed me on his phone an x-ray photo of a knee replacement surgery. Very proudly he declared that it was the surgery he had performed that very morning - a Dr that certainly loves his work!

The Tarzan Extreme Park

Taking the junction of Theprasit road and Sukhumvit road as a starting point. Drive south from Pattaya for 8 miles and turn left at the Buddha road traffic lights. After you cross the railway lines you will be travelling along the newly surfaced and smooth Buddha Mountain road. Drive a further 2.8 miles, and take another left. After a short drive of 0.3 miles, you will come across the Tarzan Extreme Park.

It has taken the owners, I. Park and Min Gyu I, together with a group of specialized builders and a team of dedicated helpers 2 years of hard work to transform this 55 rai of fertile land into an adventure park. Soon to be available in the park will be a vast number of fruits planted, with the Orange, Lime, Coconut, Banana, Cherry, Santol, Dragon fruit, Mangosteen, Jack fruit, Pomelo, Wollongong fruit and many other fruits that now live side by side or rather below the 8 to 15-meter high zip lines, also there will be the fruit and drinks from the ever-growing field of Pineapples.

On your arrival, you will be met by the charming Miss Kim or the equally charming Supansa, and after a quick stop for coffee in the air-conditioned Tarzan coffee shop, it's off to one of the 30 stages of breathtaking zip lines. From here you have to manoeuvre your way across the many wooden slatted jungle style rope bridges. -Let's hope your balancing skills are up to par.

There is also a shooting range planned which I have been reliably informed, is due to open this month. There is also going to be pistol shooting at 350 baht for 8 x 45mm rounds and shotgun shooting with 5 x 12 bore rounds for 450 baht. Let's hope they have some heavy-duty ear defenders.

If that's not enough for you, there are also 10 elephants. The youngest is only 4 years old and the oldest is a young 20-year-old in constant search of bananas from passing visitors. A 15-minute elephant ride will cost 300 baht.

The cost for the ½ course is 2,000 baht and 2,800 baht for the full course, 1,000 baht for kids.

AMAZING PROGRESS FROM THE UNDER THE ROOF CLUB SCHOOL PROJECT

As these photos show they are already working on the building of the walls for the school. Most of the cement work has been completed and the roof is being put on.

The progress so far is remarkable as construction materials are expensive to buy and difficult to transport on the slippery dirt roads from Pai Mai Hon Son Province to the village.

The next stage will be to furnish the school with desks, chairs, tables and provide books and a salary for the teacher

SIMPLE SIMON

Simple Simon is on Soi 5 Jomtien (the Immigration Soi). You probably already know them for their fantastic full English breakfasts - a tremendous hangover cure if ever there was one and yet there is so much more on the menu to enjoy. For example they offer UK style Chinese and Indian food and have recently introduced some new dishes as weekly specials. These include smoked salmon fishcakes at only 220 baht spaghetti with meatballs and succulent slow cooked barbecued ribs just 240 baht. Keep an eye out as there will be more options added to supplement an already full menu of British staples, Staples such as "Bangers and Mash" and fish and chips where you can choose from either Dory at 185 baht or Atlantic Cod at 230 baht, beer battered with chips. There are also many Thai dishes but we were there to try the Sunday Roast.

With a selection of lamb, beef, pork and chicken all available we were spoilt for choice but advised to go for the newly introduced lamb shank which we took with a chicken and pork option. The roasts automatically come with both creamy mash plus roast potato and plenty of vegetables. On the Sunday we were there these were carrots peas and broccoli. A pig in its blanket (sausage wrapped in bacon) stuffing and a yorkshire pudding completed the plate! I also love a traditional sauce with my roast and it was very pleasing to see that both apple sauce for the pork and mint for the lamb were automatically brought to the table without being asked for, together with extra helpings of gravy - heaven!

The meals themselves were very pleasingly plated with reasonably thick slices of the chicken and pork (I hate thinly sliced "school dinner" servings of roast meats). Everything was brought out piping hot and perfectly cooked. In fact if you fall in love so much with the sausage and bacon you eat at Simple Simon's you can buy some of exactly the same quality to take home and cook yourself. At the fridge and freezer cabinets to the side you will also find ready meals such as delicious chicken curries from as little as 115 and a 400gm serving of lasagna for only 465 baht.

So don't just visit Simple Simon's for breakfast try a roast on Sunday served from 12pm until 9 pm when you will also be able to accompany it with a glass of either red or white wine for only 99 baht

Gerry's Gross 79, Best of the Day

Amphai Noksa Vos - Ladies Winner

The day's conditions were perfect with clear skies, a light steady breeze and a course in overall good condition. The field of 107 keen players included only 7 Ladies but all were set for a great finale.

As with most months, there is generally a standout performer or 2 on the day. Although not a crazy low gross, Gerry Sweetnam's (12) 79 was good enough to win the Gross and secure top spot in the A Flight, with 41 points. The winners of the B and C Flights were responsible for the best stableford scores of the day, outstanding 44s.

The Ladies winner, Amphai Noksa Vos (13) signed for a solid 37 points, to go with her Long Drive on B8 and her Near Pin on A2.

A Flight minor prizes went to Robert Watkins (10) with 37 points, to go with his Long Drive on B8 and approach on A3, while Tommy Wickman's (11) 35 points was good enough for 3rd spot.

B flight, for handicap 14 - 22, was won clearly by Donal McGuigan (22) with a day's best of 44 points, with Tony Bless (18) edging Phillippe Vos (18) in the minor prize battle 20/18, after both signed for 38 points.

In the C Flight for handicaps 23+, Stephen Watkins (27) with the equal day's best of 44 points was clearly the best. James Sulavuori (29) with his 40 points picked up the silver spot, with Arne Wirdo (27) getting the bronze position on 38 points to go with his Near Pin on B5. Arne's 20 points on the Back 9 saw off both Pierre and Gabriel on the countback to secure his placing.

Although the Order of Merit winner, Mikael Andersson was already decided, there was still plenty of jostling for the lower positions. Donal McGuigan's 44 points secured him top OoM points on the day, moving him up to secure 2nd. The 3rd and 4th spots went to Craig Banks and Tood Fox respectively, while Ken Price did enough to score 5th spot. Honourable mentions for multiple technical wins on the day should go out to John Aylott, Brendan Cope and Jeff Wylie.

Dave and his team did a fantastic job of keeping all the golfers and their guests satisfied in the food department, while the Hemingway's staff kept the fluid refreshments supplied. We will all look forward to another successful Series and tournament commencing at Pattavia. Contact Shane on 0859459689, through Facebook, or birdie.in.th for preferred time slots.

- Great food offers every day including the famous 129 baht breakfast and ice cold beers at reasonable prices served to you by our great staff.

As this month sees the very popular event that is Burapa Bike week kicking off on Valentine's day we thought we'd take a look at Thailand's enduring love affair with the Motorbike.

Indeed the motorbike (or motorcycle) is the most popular form of transport in Thailand and home to many manufactures including Yamaha, Ducati, Suzuki, Honda Kawasaki, Triumph, KTM, Lifan, Wakan and home-grown brands Stallion, GPX and Tiger. However, according to Thailand's Land Transport Department, the country's motorcycle market is showing signs of saturation. It declined to 755,214 units sold over the first five months of 2018, a drop of 2.4 percent from 773,794 units sold over the same period in the previous year. Also The Federation of Thai Industries reported that with around 1.8 million units sold in 2018 this figure was on a par with the previous year's sales. Insiders have attributed the lack of increase is to the static purchasing power of the country's low-income workers who usually account for many of the sales of models with smaller engines and automatic gearboxes.

Honda Click and Honda Wave models are extremely popular with the country's rental companies as Honda continues to dominate the Thai market. and is supported by an innovative aftermarket industry where custom parts are available, off-the-shelf upgrades and full bike rebuilds catering to all budgets.

Another Honda model the PCX150 is increasing in popularity for individual user sales, being big enough to carry a passenger in comfort whilst small enough to travel through traffic and park easily. The latest 2019 model has a revised intake and exhaust system and low-friction 149cc liquid-cooled four-stroke engine with greater fuel efficiency and a larger gas tank meaning less time spent filling up.

The only major European player in the market, Italian manufacturer Vespa registered a significant 29.13 percent rise in sales, with 7,504 units sold -up on 5,811 units in the previous year. Also, local Thai brand, GPX continued to register steady growth of 15.28% growth in 2018.

There are also many options available from iron bikes of yesteryear that can be bought for a song and beaten back to life. These can give the average person the opportunity to customise and turn their hand to turning an otherwise ordinary motorcycle into something unique fun and exciting. There are some excellent spare parts readily available and with a little research a customised bike can easily be built in nearly any style using a workhorse as a starting point. However, one thing to look out for if buying an old bike is that it might fall under the grey market and therefore not have a green book. So please check carefully before handing over your hard earned cash.

Certainly the enduring classic Yamaha SR 401 first released in 1978 that has been built continuously around the world remaining largely unchanged from its original design, is still a popular model.

Then looking to the future rather than the past, electric cars, hybrids, buses and trains are all on the way as the global trend to improve air quality and reduce greenhouse gases continues. Honda already have the EV-Club on sale in Taiwan but at 120,000 baht, this is considered out of reach for most Thai people. With conventional Honda Waves costing around 45,000 baht, something has to be done to combat the difference in price, if the new EV is to have any hope of success in the Kingdom.

<https://pixabay.com/en/harley-davidson-motorbike-motorcycle-569289/>

For those of us, however who just like to see a good looking bike there will be plenty of eye candy on view at Burapa Bike week with chrome polished shiny Harleys very much in evidence. Get along to the National Sports Centre Soi Chaiyapruet 2 between the 14th and 16th to feast your eyes!

Pattaya Beach Football Cup 2019

Pattaya's Mayor Sonthaya Khunplome gave a speech at a special press conference held at Central Festival Pattaya Beach road to launch this year's Pattaya Beach Football Cup

The tournament will take place on Jomtien Beach from 1-10 February 2019 with 9 competing teams representing: Thailand, Holland, Norway, Russia, Japan, England, Ireland, Finland and France

LPGA HONDA CLASSIC RETURNS TO PATTAYA

This month the 21st until the 24th sees the return of the LPGA Honda Classic to Siam Country Club Old Course, only a short drive from central Pattaya. This high class event brings top women golfers from all over the world who will be competing for a prize purse of 1.6 million US dollars.

Among the many top Thai golfers scheduled to join the tournament are two pros who first joined the Honda LPGA Thailand as amateurs and now enjoy a very successful career on the LPGA Tour – Ariya “May” Jutanugarn, No.1 in the Rolex world Rankings, and Moriya “Mo” Jutanugarn, currently at No. 20. To see two Thai nationals, and sisters to boot, amongst the top twenty in the world is a truly remarkable achievement and they are bound to be a big draw in the upcoming event. Playing alongside them will be a host of top quality players from Europe, America and Asia, to make this a truly international tournament. In addition, there will also be a “Festival Village” that will feature interactive activities and food stalls for spectators to enjoy across the four days. Fun under the sun, there is something for everyone.

Siam Country Club old course itself was founded in 1971 and has had constant upgrades and improvements since then, both to the course itself and the clubhouse and practice facilities, which has made it the home of the LGPA in Thailand and one of the best layouts in the country. The extra attractions for spectators attending will be second to none, with a host of interactive activities for golfing enthusiasts of all ages. Their will also be a host of food and drink outlets, featuring both Thai and international food.

Ticket prices are remarkable value considering the quality of the event and the class of golfer that you will be able to see close up throughout the event. Prices start from as low as 350 baht for the Thursday or Friday, 550 baht for the Saturday or final day Sunday, a weekend pass for 950 baht and a truly great value price of 1200 baht for admission to all four days.

Anybody who enjoys viewing top quality golf should get along to Siam Country club to watch the world’s best women golfers compete in this year’s Honda Classic. And being such great value, for anybody interested in the great game of golf, it’s a must see.

RADIO 96FM – from PATTAYA to the WORLD

96FM Pattaya People Radio continues to entertain Pattaya with the best playlist in town including all those 'Sunshine Hits on 96'. Premier League Update

After the heavy winter fixture list, February sees the return of European competition for the top premier league teams. Alongside the league itself there are teams in action in both the Europa league and the Champions league. To start us off in the Champions league Manchester United will take on Paris St Germain in the early hours of the 13th of February at Old Trafford.

What to make of Man United? Well at the time of going to press United have won all 8 games under the management of Ole Gunnar Solskjaer including away wins at both Tottenham and Arsenal. Manchester United fans must be going into the very difficult fixture against the all-star French side with a lot more confidence than they had previously.

This is followed by Tottenham's match against Borussia Dortmund at Wembley in the early hours of the 14th of February. This will be no easy assignment for Spurs but depending on the injury situation at the club the fans must feel that they have every chance of progressing to the last 8.

Three British teams then return to action in the Europa league again in the early hours, on the 15th of February with both Arsenal and Chelsea expected to progress against BATE and Malmo respectively. Celtic however are faced with a far more difficult task against Valencia and will do very well to overcome the Spaniards over the two legged tie.

English teams' involvement continues in February with Liverpool's home tie in the Champions League against Bayern Munich on the 20th of February. No game against the German champions will ever be easy but they are not quite the force of old and Liverpool and their fans will be expecting to get through this fixture. Concluding the European action for English teams in February will be the return legs of the Europa league ties on the 22nd which again will feature Arsenal, Chelsea and Celtic.

In the Premier league it's looking very much like a two horse race for the title between Manchester City and Liverpool. City have come back in blistering form after their losing hiccup in December but Liverpool still have a crucial 4 point lead. Highlights this month include Manchester City at home to Arsenal on the 3rd, City again at home to Chelsea on the 10th and then on the 24th the new improved Manchester United get a severe test when they take on Liverpool at Old Trafford. There is also a fierce London Derby on the 28th when Spurs will visit Chelsea. Allied to that we have the Carabao Cup Final on the 24th where Chelsea will again take on Manchester City in the final.

Add the continuing FA Cup 4th and 5th rounds into the mix and you can see that February really is a fantastic month for football action. With the kick off times of some of the biggest matches throughout the month being in the early hours of the morning local time, you will need a great sports bar like I-Rovers with its 21 screens and 24 opening hours where you can guarantee that the match you want to see will be shown.

Open 10.00 am. - 10.00 pm.

PATTAYA PEOPLE TELEVISION – Updated Schedule

The only English speaking 24 hour a day local TV channel, Pattaya People Television is continuing to entertain and inform the Ex Pat community of Pattaya, plus many Thai locals who are known to regularly choose to watch this mainly English speaking channel.

An overhaul of PPTV's output has now taken place to provide a revised and even better schedule for the forthcoming months. The Pattaya People App has been updated so that the TV and radio stations can be accessed on your smartphone, anytime, anywhere.

Coming up in February are features including the recent 'Racketlon' event, 'The Pattaya Expats Club Party' at The Roof, plus Barry Upton's adventures in Koh Chang, The "Pattaya Stories" series, and so much more, covering a diverse range of subjects here locally including some of the amazing attractions all around Pattaya which can now be enjoyed with a 50% discount using the Pattaya People Privilege Card.

Kevin's Vlogs are about various aspects of living in Pattaya and cover subjects as diverse as 'Retiring On A Budget', 'Going To Court', 'New Motorbike Laws', 'Cheap Jomtien Beach Front Apartments', etc., etc..

The very popular 'Yoga Pose Of The Day' series with instructions from guru Diana Mountanous, sponsored by the Zen Cell Rejuvenation Clinic, will continue with new exercises and postures intended to help health and flexibility. Strike a pose and get fit!

Plus there's the weekly 'Pattaya ExPats Club' TV feature with interesting and, sometimes, vital info from the guest speakers that appear there.

If you have any ideas for features or can recommend interesting people for Barry to chat to for his 'Pattaya Stories' series, please contact Pattaya People Media Group by emailing info@pattayapeople.com.

Big sponsors 'Mixx nightclub' and 'Club Insomnia' are always well featured with their infomercials lighting up the daily output. Also, look out for Pattaya Trader's editor Gloria Jones who has a cozy couch chat with Barry Upton as they delve into the detail of the current magazine.

Available now on Sophon cable around the clock and online at the 'Pattaya People' website - www.pattayapeople.com

Don't forget to download the FREE 'Pattaya People' app so you can access the TV output on your handheld device, anytime and anywhere in the world.

BREXIT JARGON - WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT ?

You may be fed up of all the Brexit news but there will certainly be a good deal more of it this month and certainly the ongoing Brexit fiasco is having a huge effect on the UK Expats living in Thailand. So if like us you feel it would be helpful to have an explanation of the terminology most often used - here's a run down

No deal

- A no-deal Brexit would mean the UK leaving the European Union and cutting ties immediately, with no agreement at all in place.
- If MPs do not approve Theresa May's deal, and there is no alternative deal or move to delay or stop Brexit, the UK will leave with no deal on 29 March.
- The UK would follow World Trade Organization rules to trade with the EU and other countries, while trying to negotiate free-trade deals.

WTO (World Trade Organization) rules

- If countries don't have free-trade agreements, they usually trade with each other under rules set by the World Trade Organization.
- Each country sets tariffs - or taxes - on goods entering. For example, cars passing from non-EU countries to the EU are charged 10% of their value. But tariffs on some agricultural products are much higher - dairy averages more than 35%.
- If the UK chooses to put no tariffs on goods from the EU, it must also have no tariffs on goods from every WTO member.

Article 50

- Part of an EU treaty that sets out how member countries can leave, with a two-year timetable for leaving.
- Article 50 was triggered by Prime Minister Theresa May at the end of March 2017 and means the UK will leave the EU at the end of March 2019.
- The UK is allowed to stop the Article 50 process completely - but if it wants only to extend it, all the other EU countries must agree.

Another referendum

- Some campaigners - who call their proposal the People's Vote - want to have another referendum on the UK's membership of the EU.
- It has been suggested the vote could have three options - Theresa May's deal, no deal and Remain. But some campaigners think there should only be two choices.
- Opponents of another vote say there is no need for it as the 2016 referendum made it clear that people wanted to leave the EU.

Single market

- A system that enables goods, services, people and capital (money) to move between all 28 EU member states, as well as Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein and Switzerland.
- Countries in the single market apply many common rules and standards.
- A UK company can sell its product (goods) in Portugal as easily as it can in Portsmouth, bring back the cash (capital), offer maintenance (services) and despatch a repair team (people).

Customs union

- A trade agreement under which two or more countries do not put tariffs (taxes) on goods coming in from other countries in the union.
- The countries also decide to set the same tariff on goods entering from outside the union.
- The EU customs union includes EU member states and some small non-EU members and forbids members from negotiating trade agreements separately from the EU. Instead trade agreements are negotiated collectively.

Free-trade agreement

- A deal between countries to reduce, but not necessarily eliminate, trade barriers.
- These barriers include import or export taxes (tariffs), quotas or licences that limit imports, and differing regulations on things such as safety or hygiene or labelling.
- The aim is increase trade in goods but also services.

Withdrawal agreement

- Theresa May has agreed a deal with the EU on the terms of the UK's departure. It does not determine the UK-EU future relationship.
- It does include how much money the UK must pay to the EU as a settlement, details of the transition period, and citizens' rights.
- It also covers the so-called "backstop", which ensures that no hard border exists between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland after Brexit even if there's no deal on the future relationship in place by the end of the transition period.

Backstop

- Currently, there are no border posts, physical barriers or checks on people or goods crossing the border between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland.
- The backstop is a measure in the withdrawal agreement designed to ensure that continues after the UK leaves the EU. It comes into effect only if the deal deciding the future relationship between the UK and EU is not agreed by the end of the transition period (31 December 2020).
- Until the deal on the future relationship is done, the backstop would keep the UK effectively inside the EU's customs union but with Northern Ireland also conforming to some rules of the single market. Critics say a different status for Northern Ireland could threaten the existence of the United Kingdom and fear that the backstop could become permanent.

Divorce bill

- The money the UK has agreed to pay to the EU under Theresa May's deal.
- Based on UK's share of EU budgets up to 2020 as well as continuing liabilities such as EU civil servants' pensions
- The bill is widely expected to be about £39bn and will be paid over a number of years, with about half of it during the transition.

.....and there you have it. We hope this helps your understanding of the sorry mess that has been Brexit over the last couple of years. Good luck to us all !

The Smart Visa Program is intended to attract experts, senior managers, and investors to work or invest in technology companies to help develop the 10 targeted industries which will, in turn, drive technology and innovation in Thailand.

Thailand SMART Visa

The Thailand SMART Visa is a new type of visa designed to encourage highly skilled professionals and investors to support the development of Thailand's targeted industries. SMART Visa is open to foreign specialists, executives, entrepreneurs and investors who want to work or to invest in the 10 S-Curve industries or targeted industries.

Thailand Smart Visa applications will only apply to the 'S-Curve' targeted industries:

First S-Curve Industries

- Next-Generation Automotive
- Intelligent Electronics
- Advance Agriculture & Biotechnology
- Food Processing
- High Wealth and Medical Tourism

The Five New S-Curve Industries

- Digital Industry
- Automation and Robotics
- Aviation and Logistics
- Biochemical and Biofuel
- Comprehensive Healthcare Industry

2. Investor (SMART "I")

Investors in companies using technologies in manufacturing or delivering services and being in the targeted industries

- Directly investing in one or more companies in Thailand using technology as a base in manufacturing or delivering services and are in the targeted industries as an individual investor in the total amount of at least 20 Million Baht

3. Executive (SMART "E")

Senior executives working in the companies using technology in manufacturing or delivering services and being in the targeted industries

- Minimum salary of no less than 200,000 Baht or equivalent per month
- Holder of a bachelor's degree or higher with at least 10 years of work experience in the relevant field
- Holding a senior management position having an employment contract with a company in Thailand or in a foreign country with an assignment to work in Thailand. The remaining period of the employment contract must be at least 1 year.

SMART Visa Benefits and Privileges

1. Visa validity up to 4 years (instead of the usual 1 year)
2. No work permit required
3. Extension of reporting of stay to Immigration Bureau – from every 90-day to every year
4. The right of legal dependents (children who are older than 18 years old) of SMART Visa holder to live and work in Thailand equivalent to Smart Visa Holder (this benefit is applicable only to the holder of SMART Visa Type "T" only)
5. Spouse granted permission to work without work permit requirement
6. No re-entry permit required

SMART Visa categories and qualifications

1. Talent (SMART "T")

Highly skilled professionals in the fields of science and technology

- Minimum salary of no less than 200,000 Baht or equivalent per month
- Having an employment or service contract with an entity in Thailand with at least 1 year remaining term

4. Startup (SMART "S")

Foreign startup entrepreneurs who wish to invest in the targeted industries in Thailand

- Having fixed savings account in Thailand or in a foreign country with a balance of not less than 600,000 Baht or equivalent and the remaining maturity term of at least 1 year

5. Others (SMART "O")

Legal dependents such as spouse and children.

Foreigners wanting to apply for the Thailand Smart Visa will first need to apply for and obtain a Qualification Endorsement letter from the SMART Visa Unit. The SMART Visa Unit will check the application for qualification, and then submit to the relevant government agency for endorsement. The whole process will take around 30 working days.

Alternative Investments

Alternative Investments are classed as ones that do not fit into the usual investment types such as those held on stock exchanges, mutual funds, stocks, pensions, government bonds, etc. They include things such as private equity, hedge funds, infrastructure projects, property, derivatives, commodities, forex, IPOs (Initial Public Offerings), crowd funding etc.

Most alternatives have low liquidity compared to conventional types. An example of this is that it will be a lot harder to sell a part stake in such as a Malaysian forest compared to shares in Microsoft because of the limited number of buyers. By nature Alternative Investments are usually unregulated. This means that although there are some excellent ones there are others which are highly risky. Some are outright fraud and scams. Always be wary of unsolicited calls offering fantastic returns in IPOs, fine wine, property etc. They'll provide you with glossy convincing brochures and persuasive sales talk. These are normally from people using false names working in "boiler rooms" in some far off country. You'll receive worthless ownership papers and receive updates telling you how well your investment is doing but in reality they've stolen your money. Once the complaints start coming in they disappear off the face of the earth. So be warned. Make sure you undertake homework and due diligence to find out if the opportunity is genuine.

Having found a genuine opportunity how do you value it should you wish to sell it in the future? If we take the example of the Malaysian forest again where do you go to sell it? Where do you get a valuation from? Very often there isn't one so how do you know what price to put on it? Think of the things that can go wrong with an investment. Trees can get diseases, forests can burn down, there can be illegal logging. In short look at all the angles in a worst case scenario. If you are being offered a 15% return per year, what's the catch? How long have the company been in business? What profits and losses have they made in previous years? Who are the people behind the company? Can you talk to other investors?

There are excellent alternative investments out there but you have to go in to them with your eyes fully wide open. The returns can be brilliant but the losses can be devastating, you might well end up losing everything. I cannot stress enough that it is essential that you get expert advice and undertake all the necessary checks to ensure that the opportunity is genuine. If you are new or inexperienced in saving and investing I would recommend that you stay away from this type of thing. If you are experienced and everything stacks up then by all means go for it. However I would recommend that it only forms a small part of your overall portfolio. Not more than 15% of the total amount that you have invested.

RENTING A MOTORBIKE

Now the high season is in full swing we think visitors to Pattaya may need a timely reminder of the rules and regulations which must be adhered to if they are planning to ride a motorbike in the city.

It is the driver's responsibility to have a valid license, to wear a crash helmet at all times and most importantly of all, not to drink and drive. You could have heard that the police in Thailand may take a lenient view of breaking the law on the road but as you will see by the many police checks around Pattaya this is simply not the case.

Alongside this even though you are strictly following the above mentioned rules when you rent your motorbike you must also ensure that it is fully legal and includes up to date tax and insurance So be advised take care on the roads follow these guidelines and have a happy holiday
